Wir sind Wir

Paul van Dyk & Peter Heppner

We are who we are

Day by day, year by year
When I walk through these streets
I see the ruins of this city
Rise again as buildings.

But many windows remain empty
For many there was no return.
And about the way it used to be
One would rather not talk about it any more today.

But I wonder, I wonder, who we are.

We are who we are! We stand here!
Divided, defeated, but
We are still alive!

We are who we are. We stand here.
That cannot have been it
There's no time to be sad
We are who we are! We stand here!
We are who we are!

Risen from the ruins we thought
We had made a dream come true.
For 40 years we pulled in one direction
From ashes we made gold.

Now everything is different again
And what used to be is now worth nothing.
Now we can have what we want
But didn't we actually want a lot more?

And I wonder, I wonder where we stand.

We are who we are! We stand here.
United again in one country
Super rich and completely broke

We are who we are! We stand here!
You can't get us down so easily
There's no time to be bitter.
We are who we are! We stand here!
We are who we are!

We are who we are!
Divided, defeated, but
We are still around.

We are who we are!
We will endure
Because life must go on.

We are who we are!
This is just a bad run
We won't give up that quickly now.
