This Life

I'm cold, my path is empty
 This night is grey and cold and hard
 It holds me tight
 And won't give me away
 I'm caught
 I'm not waking up
 And the last lights will soon go out
 I see myself falling
 But I won't give up.

Because I love this life
 I love the moment when I'm falling
 I love this life
 And I love this day
 And I love this world
 Because I love this life
 I love the moment when I'm falling
 I love this life
 And I love this day
 And I love this world.

Take my strength
 Take my heart
 Take all my hope
 And all the pain
 from my hand
 And don't give them away
 What's going on

Where should I go
 Where did my big heroes go
 Even if we leave
 I don't know where we'll go

Because I love this life
 I love the moment when I'm falling
 I love this life
 And I love this day
 And I love this world
 Because I love this life
 I love the moment when I'm falling
 I love this life
 And I love this day
 And I love this world.

I don't know where it's all is going,
 It's all is going

And I love this life...

Because I love this life
 I love the moment when I'm falling
 I love this life
 And I love this day
 And I love this world
 Because I love this life

I love the moment when I'm falling
 I love this life
 And I love this day
 And I love this world.
